

Starlight Scandalions

A collage of various handwritten notes and sticky notes pinned to a surface. The notes are written in different colors of ink (blue, black, red) and some are on yellowed or torn pieces of paper. The handwriting is cursive and somewhat messy, suggesting a brainstorming session or a collection of ideas. Some legible phrases include "support", "and we have", "supporting us", "the future", "the future", "the future", "the future", "the future".
